ARRIVAL OF TRAINS.

DEPARTURE OF TRAINS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

AN early spring is predicted.
WHAT has become of Planchette?

THIS is fine weather for shoe-dealers.
A "GREEN GROUCH"—one who trusts.

OUR red-cheeked lasses are dreadful cheeky.
The days are growing perceptibly longer.

BUSINESS has been very dull since the holidays.
Our City Fathers have had the street crossings cleaned.

THE Temperance cause in our city is steadily gaining strength.
A colored M. E. Conference met in St. Clairsville on Monday last.

LOOK out for burglars!—we have professional gentlemen in the city.
The moon appears to be playing bo-peep with the gas-lamps again.

Slippy weather suits impetuous fellows with short-limbed trousers.
The city of Parkersburg has but two policemen. There are seven here.

PROSPECTIVE.—A turnpike is talked of between Moundsville and Wheeling.
THERE are more people out of employment in the city now than at any time this season.

MAPLE SUGAR will soon be in market. There is more fun in "sugaring off" in the woods than in eating the boiled sap.

THERE was not a single criminal case (to the best of our knowledge) before any of the justices in this city yesterday.

HORTICULTURAL.—A Horticultural Society has been organized in Barnesville. The Enterprise thinks it will succeed.

"TIME, on his two unequal legs, keeps crawling round the old clock's face"—and next Thursday is St. Valentine's Day.

THE Board of Managers of the Wo- man's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church meets this afternoon.

We let our columns open until the last hour this morning for the insertion of criminal news. None has been received, however.

POSTOFFICE ITEM.—Robert Harper has been appointed postmaster at New Cumberland, Hancock county, near John H. Jenkins, resigned.

—CONTINUED—AUTHORSHIP.—The Register states that "Bret Hart" is the author of the "Heathen Chinee" which the same we rise to dispute.

EMPHATIC.—A young and gushing youth was recently heard to exclaim to his mother: "I will get married; or I'll learn to play on the flute."

QUERY.—It is now asserted that the fashionable ladies of New York are extensively smoking. Will the coming woman come to this?

—THE SOUTH WHEELING FAIR.—Steuben Hall was, Thursday night, crowded with visitors to the Fair. The cans which was to be voted to the most popular minister was not disposed of on that evening.

POLICE COURT.—In Wheeling are many gin-mills, but the influence and attractions of these alluring institutions seem to be on the wane. Two successive-mornings with no business before the Police Court! We are slowly but steadily drifting on to a moral city.

News.—We perambulated and promenade nearly every street, by-way, and alley in the city yesterday, without learning of anything whatever the least bit strange, startling, or interesting to the public. Therefore readers expecting to peruse our "crime" column this morning will govern themselves accordingly.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—There was a public installation of officers of Enterprise Lodge No. 22, I. O. G. T., at Good Templars' Hall, Hornbrook's building, last evening. At the appointed hour the hall was comfortably filled. The Lodge was called to order by G. C. Trimble, as W. O. T., when D. S. W. C. T., A. N. Johnston, accompanied by the proper officers of the Grand Lodge, were properly introduced and proceeded to install the officers elect, after which the entertainment closed. W. C. T. R. J. Campbell; W. V. T. Sae Lester; Rec. Sec. Wm. M. Baird; A. Sec. Dorah Lester; P. Sec. Thos. Hamms; Treas. Lizzie Trimble; Chaplain, Mark Lester; M. R. T. Ford; D. M. Bell Graham; I. G. Lizzie Fleming; O. G. Edwin McVay; R. H. S. Sarah Mix; L. H. S. Maggie Carroll.

BARNESVILLE ENTERPRISE.—The Barnesville people have a "Congress," and the young men composing it are debating upon the propriety of the "Reorganization of the Capital," "Reforms in the Civil Service," &c., and it is supposed that upon the receipt of this intelligence at the city of magnificent distances the Statesmen there congregated will pay their board-bills, adjuvare sine die, and return to their homes.

THE LINGARD.—Wm. Horace Lingard, the "face-maker," as the Cincinnati papers are pleased to term him, held forth in Washington Hall last night, to a tolerable house. Mr. Lingard certainly possesses the remarkable power of effectually changing the expression of his countenance, and the entire performance was appreciated by the audience.

PARLOR ENTERTAINMENTS.—A series of parlor entertainments open in the Good Templars' Hall, on Main street, to-night. The programme for this evening includes T. S. Arthur's fine temperance drama entitled "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." These entertainments are given by the Good Templars of the city. The scenery was painted by Dardine.

ARM BROKEN.—A brakeman named Matthews, employed in the Central Ohio Railroad yard at Bellaire, had his arm broken recently, while attempting to make a coupling. He was taken home, where his wound was dressed, and he is now improving.

ATTENTION SOLICITED.—A crowd of young men nightly congregate on Market street, near McKelvey's book-store, much to the annoyance of the residents in that vicinity. Frequent complaints have been made of this nuisance, and the attention of the police is solicited.

DRYER.—The wind, which has to a considerable extent prevailed in our city recently, has dried up considerable of the mud on our streets and crossings, thereby increasing the pleasures of pedestrianism.

MUDDY YET.—The balmy zephyrs do not seem to have the same effect on the mud in Bridgeport that they have here and yesterday puzzled pedestrians were seen at the street corners ruefully gazing upon flooded gutters.

Is not the sanitary condition of the city at the present time a fit subject for contemplation by our health guardians.

THE contents of the cheap counter at Forgy & Clemens' are all goods that can be guaranteed good, serviceable, and seasonable. See advertisement.

THE new Photo-Crayon pictures have become quite popular already. They are really gems of art and cannot be surpassed in beauty by any other picture at the same price. See specimens at the Partridge Gallery.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS.—This disease is much more easy to cure in young persons than when the whole energy has long been impaired by age. When the system is full of thick and impure blood, then it is most likely to have an attack; when the blood does not circulate freely, when it is obstructed, then the congestion takes place. Take the ROSADALIS three times a day, and use light and nourishing diet. Abstain from all stimulating drinks. Keep the mind quiet and free from all exciting objects. The ROSADALIS must be continued for a long time, until all the tendency of the system has become deranged.
